

QUALITY AND ENVIRONMENT POLICY

Mollificio Bordignon pursues the highest quality of its products and the environment preservation as its basic commitments.

Being industry leaders, guaranteeing an high quality of the products/services offered and promoting any sustainable action to protect the environment; this forms the basis of the following policy which the company Mollificio Bordignon intends to pursue:

- Working for a continuous improvement of every activity in the company, with particular attention for the ones that affect the product quality and the environmental impact, by measurable targets and defined actions to reach them checking the results at planned stages;
- Adopting, thanks to the contribution of all, a business management based on careful analysis of the context and risk assessment, in order to act consistently in the interest of prevention and improvement;
- Operating in full compliance with the terms of contracts, regulations and legislation relating to product quality, environment and safety in the workplace;
- Promoting knowledge and updating, by all employees, of policy, technical and methodological aspects, of their role and responsibilities, involving the continuous improvement of Quality and Environment System;
- Creating appropriate communication channels with all stakeholders, in a view of transparency and collaboration;
- Promoting a relation of co-makship with the suppliers, to provide a bigger added value to supplies;
- Stocking raw materials and finished products in quantities enough to give a reliable service within the agreed terms to our Customers;
- Aiming to such a profitability in order to have adequate resources to allocate to target investments aimed at customer and stakeholders satisfaction, and continuous improvement of products and business organization;
- Keeping a special commitment regarding the environmental protection leads us to reduce wastes and encourages for a better use of the resources both of raw materials and of energy and water.

In order to guarantee the application of the above policy, the management of Mollificio Bordignon engages to:

- ⇒ control the correct policy application and check properly and cyclically its compliance.
- ⇒ verify the actions which we intend to pursue through management reviews, audits, recurrent monitoring and improvement meetings in order to achieve the fixed targets.

Rev. 4 - date 03/05/2017

The Management

Romeo Bordignon